

The class separation learned in training often reverses on held-out mice

Bars: mean of the three seeds. Dots: individual seeds. Positive gaps have the intended KO-positive direction.
Training gaps are in-sample diagnostics; these are not additional performance estimates.